

CHARTER DEFENSE SCIENCE BOARD

- A. Official Designation: The Committee shall be known as the Defense Science Board (hereafter referred to as the Board).
- B. Objectives and Scope of Activities: The Board, under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972, as amended, shall provide the Secretary of Defense, the Deputy Secretary of Defense, the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and, as requested, other Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) Principal Staff Assistants, the Secretaries of the Military Departments, the Commanders of the Combatant Commands, independent advice and recommendations on scientific, technical, manufacturing, acquisition process, and other matters of special interest to the Department of Defense.

The Board is not established to advise on individual Defense procurements but instead shall be concerned with the pressing and complex technology problems facing the Department of Defense in such areas as research, engineering, and manufacturing, and will ensure the identification of new technologies and new applications of technology in those areas to strengthen national security. No matter shall be assigned to the Board for its consideration that would require any Member of the Board to participate personally and substantially in the conduct of any specific procurement or place him or her in the position of acting as a "procurement officials," as that term is defined pursuant to law.

The Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics) or designated representative shall be authorized to act upon the advice and recommendations of the Board.

- C. Board Membership: The Board shall be composed of approximately 35 members and approximately six Senior Fellow members, who are eminent authorities in the fields of scientific, technical, manufacturing, acquisition process, and other matters of special interest to the Department of Defense.

The Secretary of Defense shall appoint the Chairperson the Board upon the recommendation of the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics). The Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics) shall appoint the Vice Chairperson and all other members of the Board upon the advice of the DSB Chairman. The DSB Chairman and Vice Chairman will be appointed for two-year terms and may be reappointed for additional terms.

Board Members who are not fulltime Federal officers or employees, shall serve as Special Government Employees under the authority of 5 U.S.C. § 3109. Members may be appointed for terms ranging from one to four years. Such appointments will normally be staggered among the Board membership to ensure an orderly turnover in the Board's overall composition on a periodic basis. With the exception of travel and per diem for official travel, they shall normally serve without compensation, unless otherwise authorized by the appointing authority. In addition, the Secretary may invite other distinguished Government officers to serve as non-voting Observers of the Board.

The Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics) may appoint consultants, with special expertise, to assist the Board on an ad hoc basis. All consultants shall serve as Special Government Employees under the authority of 5 U.S.C. § 3109. In addition, the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics) may identify chairpersons from other advisory committees to serve on the Board. These individuals will sit as observers only and shall not vote on matters before the Board.

- D. Board Meetings: The Board shall meet at the call of the Designated Federal Officer, in consultation with the Chairperson, and the estimated number of Board meetings is four per year. The Board shall be authorized to establish subcommittees, as necessary, to fulfill its mission, and these subcommittees shall operate under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972, as amended. The Board's ad hoc Task Forces shall establish regular meeting schedules as necessary to complete their directed Terms of Reference tasking,
- E. Duration of the Committee: The need for this advisory function is on a continuing basis. However, it is subject to renewal every two years.
- F. Agency Support: The Department of Defense, through the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology and Logistics), shall provide administrative and support services as deemed necessary for the performance of the Board's functions, and shall ensure compliance with reporting requirements of 5 U.S.C. § 6 App.2. Additional information and assistance, as required, may be obtained from other components of the Department of Defense with contracting authority, support contractors, including DoD Federally Funded Research and Development Centers for studies and analysis support.
- G. Termination Date: The Board shall terminate upon completion of its mission or two years from the date this Charter is filed, whichever is sooner, unless it is extended by the Secretary of Defense.
- H. Operating Costs: It is estimated that the total annual operating costs, to include staff salaries, travel costs and meeting and contract support is approximately $4.0 million, and six (6) Full-Time Equivalent (FTE).
- I. Charter Filing Date: February 28, 2006
